What to bring

Associated Marine Training · admin@associatedmarinetraining.com · 07960 694572

Courses run 09:30 to 17:00. Please arrive by 09:15.

Powerboat courses (Hamble Point and Buckler's Hard)

- Warm layers: it's always colder on the water. Avoid cotton and jeans, which stay cold once wet.
- October to April: thermals, a fleece, a warm hat and waterproof gloves
- Shoes with non-slip, non-marking soles that can get wet (trainers, deck shoes or wellies; no heels, open toes or black soles)
- Sunglasses with a strap, and sun cream in summer
- A waterproof bag or case for your phone and keys
- Spare clothes and a towel to leave in the car
- Any medication you need, including seasickness tablets if you're prone to it
- Glasses or contact lenses if you need them for distance
- Your RYA logbook if you have one
- Packed lunch and a drink (the boat has no toilet; we may stop ashore for lunch)

We provide lifejackets, waterproof jackets and trousers, and tea, coffee and water on board.

Motor cruising (Mercury Yacht Harbour, Hamble)

- A soft bag rather than a suitcase
- Waterproof jacket and trousers, plus warm layers
- Soft, non-marking shoes with good grip
- Hat, gloves and sunglasses depending on the season; sun cream in summer
- Any medication you need, including seasickness tablets
- A waterproof bag or case for your phone and keys
- Your RYA logbook, and your Day Skipper Theory certificate for Day Skipper Practical
- Packed lunch, or use the café at the marina

We provide lifejackets.

Classroom courses (Hythe and Buckler's Hard)

- Pen, notepad and a couple of soft (2B) pencils with a rubber
- A simple calculator
- Packed lunch and a drink
- Reading glasses and any medication you need

We provide the charts, plotters and course pack.

VHF/SRC exam: you must bring

- Your printed SRC exam application form
- Photo ID (passport or driving licence)
- One passport-size photo, signed and dated on the back
- A printed copy of your eLearning certificate, if you did the online course

You must be 16 or over to sit the exam. Please pay the exam fee to the RYA before the course; it isn't included in our price.

Before you come

Please complete the waiver and health form sent with your booking confirmation. Leave valuables at home or locked in the car.
